One Word Saved Playmates' Life

Devotion of a playmate saved life of Frances Merklinger, 2½, of Tavistock, Ont. She fell in four feet of water, was rescued after other child screamed her name. Only able to say one word, "Frances," real well, Johnny Stere, two, screamed it so anxiously after girl fell in that his mother sent a man to investigate cause.

That's what I used to say, and it was true. Sometimes I'd dream of the day when I'd have time and leisure to do all the things I wanted to do, but I had to admit I wasn't doing anything about it except dream. I never seemed to be able to put anything aside.

Now, I know those dreams will come true. They're guaranteed.

Through a simple saving plan which, strangely enough, I've found involves no hardship, I am now saving money for the first time in my life.

Skating Rink

The little fellows around the town are asking are we to have a rink to skate on this winter. Its very possible if every able-bodied father or big brother would turn out and help in promoting this very worthy cause—it will help keep your boy or girl on the park instead of the river or canal. So lets help the kiddies enjoy the winter months.

LaSalle Youth Centre

The LaSalle Youth Centre held a party dance last Saturday night at Rainbow Garden. A very successful affair—a good turn out and a good time was had by all. Thanks to our very able police dept., Mr. J. Tavender, Mr. Del Taylor, and Chief police Sinks for the orderly way they kept the party moving on even keel.
